Tips for your journey in Emmental

Burgdorf is the gateway to the Emmental and the starting point of your journey

A romantic rural town features the castle from the heyday of the Knighthood, old town center with stately merchant and guild houses as well as the archways typical of the Zähringer. emmental.ch

Museum Franz Gertsch – Burgdorf

Franz Gertsch is one of the most important contemporary Swiss artists. Since his international breakthrough in “documenta 5” in Kassel in 1972 until today Gertsch has created a rich painterly and graphic work. The masterpiece of the exhibition is the incredibly precise woodcuts designed in monumental format. museum-franzgertsch.ch/en

Lueg

Leave your car and walk a few minutes steeply up and you reach the “Heiligenlandpöli” – the highest point with a view over the rolling hills of Emmental. Here in the past there was a lookout tower where an alarm fire was lit. Since 1921 there is a monument here which was erected in memory of the Bernese cavalrymen who served their country. emmental.ch

Showdairy in Affoltern

Behind large glass windows you can observe the cheesemakers at work and see how the famous Emmental loaves are made from milk. emmentaler-schaukaeserei.ch/en

CONCIERGE TIP: During the e-bike tour “Emmental Cheese Tour” tour you can learn exciting stories about the old tradition of Emmental cheese.

Bakery Mätteli-Beck in Affoltern

Make a stop at a bakery Mätteli-Beck and get some souvenirs for your loved ones. Who would not appreciate fine Nidletäfel, sweet Ämmtaler Müntschi or homemade Chüejer meringues. Over three generations this family-run bakery produces bread and pastries. The products were earlier delivered to the clients by the dogs. maetteli-beck.ch

Village Wasen near Sumiswald

Here you will find a number of various craft businesses. Following the trail “Handwerkerweg” you will pass by a saddler, a manufacturer of traditional Swiss musical instruments, a traditional tailor or a clock maker, a pendulum and a cheese maker. The Gotthelf Hall in the guesthouse Kreuz was the location for filming the “Uli the Tenant”. handwerkerweg.ch

Church and Gotthelf Museum – Lützelflüh

Visit the church and the rectory in Lützelflüh where Albert Bizius alias Jeremias Goffhelf worked as a pastor. In the museum you can see his favorite place, his coffee pot and his study room, where he wrote his famous works. A tour of the village leads you to the Ueli fountain, the grave of Albert Bizius and the memorial of Jeremias Gotthelf. gotthelf.ch

Bell foundry Berger – Bärau

The bell foundry Berger produces a large number of Swiss bells: cow bells, horse bells, goat bells, sheep bells and gift bells. swissbells.com

Village Trubschachen

Take your time to see warehouses, syringe houses and commercial buildings from old times. Enjoy countless variations of “Güezi” in the Kambly factory store. kambly.com/en

CONCIERGE TIP: We recommend a visit of the village Trub which was named in 2019 most beautiful village in Switzerland.

Kemmeriboden Bad – Schangnau

Apparently the best “Meringue” can be bought in the guesthouse Kemmeriboden Bad. The recipe remains of course a secret. It was created in 1939 when people wanted to use an excessive amount of cream produced at the associated farm. kemmeriboden.ch
