

Wine village Auvernier

Only 15 minutes away from Boudry you will find Auvernier, a romantic and traditional wine-growing village on the North shore of Lake Neuchâtel. Thanks to the Château d'Auvernier and the numerous wineries, this lake-front town is always worth a visit. j3l.ch

Watchmaker's workshop "Au carillon d'or", Auvernier

If time permits, the watchmaking family Thierry and Grégory Amstutz will be happy to show you their authentic craftsmanship, a unique experience for watch lovers (pre-booking required). aucarillondor.ch

Brasserie du Poisson, Auvernier

May we suggest you an early dinner? We recommend you this brasserie, be sure to try its fish specialties – a real treat! (Closed Sun & Mon) lepoisson-auvernier.ch

This day tour brings you to the world-known watchmaking hub in La Chaux-de-Fonds and continues to the historical lakefront city of Neuchâtel, passing by the natural cascades Les Gorges de l'Areuse. Become a watchmaker for the day and discover a Unesco-awarded cultural heritage in a region of natural beauty. Breathtaking views over the vineyards and the Alps are included.

Take your time for the time

BELLEVUE PALACE
BERN

Tête de Ran - La Vue des Alpes

Continue to “La Vue des Alpes” – this legendary pass in the Jura mountains offers a magnificent panoramic view over the Bernese Alps and also towards the snowcovered peaks of the Vaud Alps. Myswitzerland.com

La Chaux-de-Fonds

Your journey starts with La Chaux-de-Fonds, a city that stands for watches like no other in Switzerland. The successful symbiosis between urban development and the watchmaking industry is part of the Unesco world heritage. The local information center is an ideal starting point for immersing yourself into the world of watches. neuchateltourisme.ch

La Ferme des Brandt, La Chaux-de-Fonds

Everything is homemade at this restaurant – enjoy regional cuisine with fresh, local ingredients from small, regional farms. Bon appétit! (Closed Mon & Wed) fermedesbrandt.ch

International Watch Museum, La-Chaux-de-Fonds

With 4,500 exhibited pieces, the International Watch Museum is the world’s largest museum specialized in watches. From magnificent pocket watches to wall clocks and atomic clocks, this popular venue illustrates the history of time measurement. mih.ch

Espacité Tower, La Chaux-de-Fonds

We continue to the city’s landmark: Thanks to its central location on Avenue Léopold-Robert, the Espacité Tower offers a view over the city’s chessboard structure. Free entrance. j31.ch

The White House, La Chaux-de-Fonds

La Chaux-de-Fonds is not only a watchmaking town but also the birthplace of world-known architect Le Corbusier. Visit one of his early works, the “Maison Blanche”, which he built for his parents in 1912. maisonblanche.ch

Château des Monts, Le Locle

Continue to Le Locle and stop by the Château des Monts, the city’s landmark. The patrician house is home to 500 years of watchmaking history. mhl-monts.ch

Les Gorges de l'Areuse, Boudry

As you descend towards Lake Neuchâtel, continue to the village of Boudry with its natural Areuse cascades. A beautiful hiking trail will lead you around the area between forests, stone bridges and cliffs – a refreshing walk along the cascades, especially in summer. Myswitzerland.com

more on the backside >